

PROPHETIC WORD

October 2025

by Prophetess Monica Ollivierre

On September 30, 2025, I was seeking God at 3:10am about what will be happening in the month of October, God dropped into my spirit “opposition”. He continued with the following:

“Opposition. Prepare for opposition in October. There will be great opposition in October due to world events and local events. You will need to fight the good fight of faith in October. Although the opposition will be fierce, focus on Me. Focus on My ability and not the intensity of the opposition. I will get you through it but your eyes need to focus on Me and not life’s situations. Trust Me through the opposition.

Cover your household with the Blood of Jesus. Apply it to the door posts of your house spiritually. You will be blessed when you go out and when you come in. Pray for the protection of your family Hope Aglow during Halloween and also on All Saints’ Day, which is November 1. Both days you need to be praying. I am with you, and I will protect you. You just need to be in prayer.

October is the beginning of the enemy really pushing to stop you Hope Aglow from achieving the goals I have given you for this year. During October, press, really press, into Me. October is not the time to let down your guard or to ease up and coast. No, it is the time to press into Me. Spend time with Me and I will navigate you around of the opposition.

October will be filled with opposition, but I will give you hinds feet just like in Habakkuk 3:19 (AMP) so that you can make progress even in challenging times and in the difficult terrain of life. You are victorious Hope Aglow. You will come out of October victorious. Just know there will be opposition, but I have already overcome it. Stay the course. Keep walking with Me and I will lead you right through the opposition with victory and spoils.

Seek Me in October. Hear My voice. Obey My commands and you will experience a victorious October over the opposition. Just like Nehemiah. He experienced opposition but I led him to victory over it. Victory is your portion. Do not look at the opposition. Look up to Me and I will get you through the opposition.

Just like Nehemiah your Sanballat and Tobiah will come. Just keep building and working with the plan I gave you earlier in the year. Don’t give up and don’t get discouraged. For I am with you.”
