

SPOTLIGHT

On February 29, 1984, God started the vehicle and began to drive the plans into motion for Marcus Anthony McCallum Ferguson. From the beginning of his school days to this point in his life, Marcus has been placed on the potter's wheel where he has been molded, shaped, broken, and even recreated again. Min. Marcus is truly a humble servant who loves Jesus with all his mind, spirit, and soul. He has a way of making the Word of God relevant to the unchurched generation of today, yet has the awareness of reaching the generations of Bible believing followers.

Minister Ferguson was licensed to preach the Gospel on December 14, 2005, by the Bethlehem Baptist Church in Alexandria, Virginia, under the pastorate of the Rev. Dr. Darrell K. White. He was educated in the Fairfax County Public School System and is a graduate of American Public University, obtaining his Bachelor's Degree in Human Development and Family Studies. He is currently pursuing his master's degree in Special Education at George Mason University. He is a Special Education Teacher in FCPS.

Min. Ferguson loves to serve the community and church. He has been coaching youth football for over 15 years and is the president of the Gum Springs Youth Athletic Association. He is also the President of the Gum Springs Youth Athletic Association. Lastly, he currently holds membership with the Baptist Minister's Conference of Northern Virginia and Vicinity and is the Chairperson of the Technology Ministry.

Min. Ferguson is a lover of family. He enjoys spending time bonding with them every chance he gets. He is married to his bride, Donna Ferguson. He also has 3 kids: Waddell, Donye, and Madison. His life scripture is Romans 8:28- "and we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose."
